

Luis Villa y su Trio Palenque is a distinguished musical group carrying the legacy of the great Mexican trios, preserving and elevating the tradition of romantic bolero music worldwide.

Luis Villa – First Voice

Luis Villa stands as one of the most prominent voices in the tradition of Mexican trios. He was a member of Los 3 Reyes from 1996 to 2002, recording the historic album El Retorno de Los 3 Reyes, which featured a duet with the legendary Selena on No Me Queda Más. His talent has taken him across the globe, sharing the stage with renowned musicians and leaving an indelible mark on the bolero genre.

Ismael Rivera – Second Voice & Requinto

A virtuoso of the requinto, Ismael Rivera is one of the finest requintistas in Mexico and the world. Beginning his career in Monterrey in 1980, he performed with Delirio and Los Monarcas, later joining Los Clásicos de Monclova in the 1990s. Since 1999, he has resided in San Antonio, Texas, where he continues to champion the beauty of traditional trio music through his exquisite guitar work.

Dani García – International Requintista (Special Guest)

Hailing from Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, Spain, Dani García is an internationally celebrated requintista. His performances have graced prestigious festivals, including the Festival Isleños de Louisiana in New Orleans and the International Festival of Cantabrian Bolero in Spain. He has also accompanied Rafael Basurto, the iconic first voice of Los Panchos, and has performed alongside Luis Villa at Noche de Boleros in Gran Canaria.

This exceptional trio continues to captivate audiences with their rich harmonies, masterful instrumentation, and deep-rooted passion for the golden era of bolero music. They will perform a special Serenata a las Madres in Boerne, Texas, celebrating the timeless beauty of trio music while honoring our Mother's during this special time of year.
